A grey Exhortation to the John Harmaud, minister of the word in the parish of Bicester for the following reasons of those who are of the goodly, which are comprehended in a useful way, written by a valiant brother from the Black Friars.