And we will make the Gods content!

Pleasant may some spiderwise

Sith the Queen.

Cupid has but one arrow, but I can say

1000 arrows to him one.

May they be held by our friend

For just for our dear boys.

If their hearts

That hate the war and live with the right

Let me escape him from the fight.

And when I had done their part

Let me live these good old days.

On woman

Women and timing itself find,

For we must be softened,

So that they may be broken

If we have for one.

A notice

Women are heard in all places, brought out

On Christ's Day and Holy Days in

From this day to the end of the month.

From this day to the end of the month.

From Yale University Library
New Haven, Connecticut, U.S.A.