

But singe high and a loofe safe ~~my~~ walrus blacke faw ~~of the~~ ~~loofe~~

Virtus vera nobilitas finis

Loue not me for comely yeare ffor pleasuring ey or face nor for any outward part one for my constant heart for those may fade & turne to ill so thou if I shall serue beys therefore a true woman ey and loue me still, but know not why Soe hast thou if some Reason still to doate and upon me serue

Inconstances Encomiu

All though the hand of faith & good worles too hath ~~gued~~ to thy loue w<sup>ch</sup> nothing should undoe yea though thou fall back that I possie confirme thy loue yett much I feare these women are like to fexts forced into none open to all searchers unjust; if unknowne if I haue bought a bird, and let her goe free Another fouler of singe those meanes as I may catch the same bird and as these things be women are made for men, not for women

... changes when they
... hold, they will then
... to one man, and did nature then
... make them after, to induce them men
... of clogs, not their own if a man be
... to a gally, yett if gallyes free
... fath ploughed lands casts all his seed corne there
... yett allows his ground more corne should beare
... damby into the sea most flow
... the sea receives Rhene Volga &c
... by nature which gave it this liberty
... thou lovest but oh, canst thou love it as ... Libres give love, then if for thou doe
... or like, love must I change too
... then thy hate I hate it rather, lett me
... change, then change as oft as shee
... not back but force my opinion
... not any one but every one

... is a ...
... all countries is wild Rogner
... they strike soone if in one place they bide
... the sea is never purifyed
... when they bide one bande & hearing this ... backe, but if next bande doe bide
... they pursey: change if y pursey
... joy, life, & eternity

Sarah Jackson
Anagram

Ah a Smas Rock

... assaults gamst fortunes had
... so, A Smas Rock