

In Lysium

When that the young woman's face look'd on Lysius later when he look'd Eg. made his epitaph of Lysius he says at every second wife Lysius's eye

In mostriem

Why frowns of hair's not man may you all fall for at thy frowns in reason thy hair's not so fall

In Jaminam

Eg. that an Apple proves by the spruce and woman by nose of her may have a notch but it's one and a French nose in the other

In hgrs

How it will laugh it is a royal theme it hath more hills than the Spanish King but yet the pom on laws quite it down in getting like the peop. for many a crown

In judicior

Lawyer's themselves maintain the pom on sale they quarrel just at doo' off end of deals they're free of subtle art the present from danger of the punishment they're free but will not loose the world in awe by any falls or just expounded laws they've had great store of pheris and how they stand not keeping auster

In Amorem

Love is a game at table, where the die of women must doo' by affection die And if it takes your fancy in a blow it's torn to one if you're not in but being a gamester you may boldly point and where you see the point you open your but what's the harm will do by falls playing you oo' what you see they will be wearing you

In Claudiporm

I can no other way be found the riple pray what doth he then? if he say true Eg. eye

Head

In Tridaram

A lovely lady that had a Roman nose making jest of Tridamus, he would speak his that when Eg. should have with her at the close I would quote he but cannot be so yet for Eg. put your egregious nose long bin I would have left your lip, I put your he proves much blight, I burnt your nose may sell her hanging pole, on a stave And said to him: to turn up your nose said that you said would be so Thou' say my nose was more than like yours in woman, that freely take your
In Anam

How both of hats their heads, both blades of that in the court not show they make, for bars of that find they might get out a bar or kath blunder them out their noses in either case to show hard proof, for sure now from the both ask, thou do' it In milonem into land long in France, and while he's there he ground board might he wife doth if they should the one barren, the other he ground board plowing up, so ooth In A.C.

At Larned Bishop of this land thinking to make religion stand in equal parts on every side a mixture of them thus Eg. tryd An ounce of Protostant and Eg. mixt with it a draught of mixt it's mixt to add of mixt and mixt them in Eg. mixt that when Eg. look'd they should the mixture mixed as the Head