

Discreet love I deem't for w^harines of these or that all w^hord can shew a finer love for mee my lady tillegrove

left thus by fayned death to dye Eies loof of thers no beholdinge where is no stayinge what pr

Joies I may not bee assured w^h no merritt can explore when they are in vayne del close thyns eies and looke no longer, when the sight confoundeth, so the more and so the stronger Dammned soules rage discontented, not so much as therr paynes to bide, when they lye in hell formes

Yesterday I sun went hence and yet is here to daye we hath no delay nor sence nor halt to short a way then I or not mee since I doe make of our w^her as I doe take more w^her as I doe take on how feeble is mans force if good fortunes fall can not add a nother hower nor a last hower recall but thus bad chances and we add to d strength and we reach it out & length At self ore as t advance when I sayst

but sayst my
my life shall I can not of a lovest m of in thine who acts the all world can show a few false friends but sure I must die at last his left hand is sealed that no wholome where is no stayinge what grieues y hartes wholome and no hopes remayninge love when they are in dayes desired, doe but vex the minde the more indeeth, so the more and so the stronger your desyer aboundeth, as to bide, when they lye in hell tormented, as to have them heaven denyde

It is mans force when I sighste I sighste no wynde it turns full but sighste my hart awaye when I weepste but wyndely bynde a rather hower when I weepste but wyndely bynde my lyfe blood both decaye over recall badde chances to a strength
each it out & length
as fardance

It can not be
I loveste mee as thou sayste I am thine my lyfe I wylste who wylste the best of me

It is not thy denyngste harte to withste mee anye delyste me may take thy parte and mayste fere fullste but thynste I wylste are but turnde as to sleepe they who on another sleepe a lyfe more feared ste
